

Curriculum Vitae
Marcus Armstrong
Professor, Government
Panola College

1109 W. Panola St.
Carthage, Tx 75633
(903) 693-2097
marcus.armstrong@panola.edu

EXPERIENCE

---

Government Professor 08/2025 – Present

Panola College | Carthage, TX

- Teach Federal Government
- Teach State & Local Government
- Teach Introduction to Political Science

Director of Strategic Planning 08/2014 – 07/2025

Texas Strategies, Inc. | Jasper, TX

- Direct and conduct research and policy analysis
- Draft legislation for elected officials
- Oversee and manage complex, multi-level budgets

Adjunct Government Instructor 08/2013 – 07/2025

Paris Junior College | Paris, TX

- Teach Federal Government
- Teach State & Local Government

EDUCATION

---

Master of Arts – Political Science | East Texas A&M University 2013

- Member, Pi Sigma Alpha (National Political Science Honors Society)

Bachelor of Arts – History | Stephen F. Austin State University 2011

- Attended UNESCO-sponsored study-abroad program in Conflict Resolution at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem

PUBLICATIONS

---

3. The Militia II: Armed Self-Defense, the Second Amendment, and the Citizen 2025
56 St. Mary's Law Journal 739

- |  |      |
|--|------|
| 2. Concerning United States Constitutional War Powers54 St. Mary's Law Journal 319 | 2023 |
| 1. The Militia: A Definition and Litmus Test52 St. Mary's Law Journal 1            | 2021 |

SERVICE

---

- Member, Faculty/Student Evaluation Committee
- Invited expert reviewer, Governing Texas, W.W. Norton & Company, 8th edition
- Invited expert reviewer, We the People, W.W. Norton & Company, 15th edition

MEMBERSHIPS

---

- Member, Pi Sigma Alpha
- Member, The Association for Political Theory
- Member, International Association for the Philosophy of Law and Social Philosophy (IVR)
- Member, The American Association of Legal and Social Philosophy (American section of IVR)
- Member, Philosophy, Politics, & Economics Society